

How the Darkest Evil Can Birth the Brightest Awakening

When believers read 2 Timothy 3, they tend to focus on the coming persecution in the end times, but they're missing a glorious element, author Larry Spargimino tells The Jim Bakker Show.

"In this passage that we look at and we say, 'It's getting worse and worse. It'll be horrible. Let's build a bunker,' ... it even reminds us here that there will be good things happening," Spargimino says.

Based on his experience in Pakistan, Spargimino says one of those good things is seeing revival explode as evil waxes worse.

Watch the video to see more.