

How This Bible Verse Can Totally Transform Your Church

Have you ever imagined bringing unbelievable change for your congregation while simultaneously impacting others around the world? Did you ever think strengthening community in your church body could be done by sleeping on the floor and re-wearing dirty clothes?

In just seven days, your church family can experience all of this, and get an idea of what poverty looks like for many of our brothers and sisters across the globe. Your congregation can explore what it means to live out Matthew 25.

“For I was hungry and you gave Me food, I was thirsty and you gave Me drink, I was a stranger and you took Me in. I was naked and you clothed Me, I was sick and you visited Me, I was in prison and you came to Me.’ ... The King will answer, ‘Truly I say to you, as you have done it for one of the least of these brothers of Mine, you have done it for Me'” (Matt. 25:35-36, 40).

The Matthew 25 Challenge is a disciple-making tool that invites families out of their comfort zones through a week of daily sacrificial challenges. It will open the eyes and hearts of your church in so many ways. See how to bring this meaningful experience to your church at
