

How to Unlock Doorways to the Supernatural in Everyday Life

The supernatural can and should be ordinary, everyday life. Yes, the supernatural is definitely extraordinary on so many levels, yet it should be an ordinary experience to any leader who believes.

What if you had insight into creating space in your life and leadership to welcome and experience the supernatural in profound ways on an ongoing basis? This is, and has always been, the will of God for every leader, in whatever sphere they occupy.

People in general—not just leaders—are longing for it, and often are completely unaware that supernatural fulfillment in knowing their Creator is what they are longing for. To know Him is to experience Him tangibly in transformative ways.

The supernatural is taboo for some, and often feels so beyond our ability to experience, yet it is literally within our grasp every day. In this episode on “developing a supernatural culture,” Shawn shares four keys that will help unlock the doorways to developing a culture of the supernatural in our lives. You will not just hear teaching, but stories that illustrate what it looks like to live and walk out a lifestyle of the supernatural within leadership. It is easier, and more accessible, than most think.

Jesus is around 24/7, and is waiting on us to lean in by using biblical, practical keys to unlock doors of life-transforming experience. It's time to develop a supernatural culture in our personal lives, families, businesses, careers and in all forms of our leadership. Get ready for a whole new journey ahead, where what has seemed abnormal becomes the new normal.
