

How You Can Boldly Enter the Throne Room of God

The Word of God clearly states that the Lord wants us to boldly enter into His presence. Jesus is our sacred access into the throne room of God.

This holy access is unmerited by us and was purchased in totality by the obedience of the perfect Son, Jesus Christ. God doesn't want us sheepishly entering His presence with our hands down in shame and insecurity. He wants us filled with revelation knowledge regarding His sacrifice so we can approach Him knowing who we are and what He's done.

God doesn't want our union hindered in any way, shape or form.

So many believers are carrying weighty baggage of guilt, regret and shame. These mentalities are often rooted in a lack of revelation of the new covenant of God's grace and the forgiveness and freedom that was bought for us.

We need to shake off these heavy weights and run into His presence, expecting to receive mercy and grace to help us in our times of need. Jesus is our sympathetic high priest who understands what it's like to wrestle against sin, yet He never caved. He has the power to carry us through our temptations and struggles by empowering us with His glorious presence.

On the latest episode of Awaken Podcast, Michael Lombardo speaks with worship leader and song writer, Laura Hackett-Park. They both share stories and break down Scripture to give the listener tools to truly embrace grace, repent of sins and move into full freedom.

If you feel like shame, guilt and pain have become a burden you're tired of carrying, this is the episode for you. Tune in to be blessed, encouraged and strengthened in your faith.
