

How You Can Manifest Your Miracles

Every day you must sow seeds to manifest your miracle. You have to remember that there are things going on in the spirit realm that you can't see. In Episode 3, It Can Change Overnight! of the Mastering Your Message podcast on the Charisma Podcast Network, I share the story of Michelle Hoskins as a precursor to my own miracle testimony.

Just a few short months ago, Michelle's company, Michelle Foods, after being in the background for decades in her industry, literally became an overnight success. Michelle went to bed one night and woke up the next morning to the news that her website had crashed because she had 17,000 visitors in one day. She went from selling 12 bottles of syrup in a month to 12 bottles of syrup in a minute.

Oftentimes, we give up before our breakthrough happens because we don't understand how the kingdom of God works. If you are operating in purpose and standing on the promises of God, success is inevitable. However, so often, I hear believers use excuses like, "My season is up for that," or "God told me to go in another direction," not because that was the case but because they secretly gave up on what they were believing God for and used these religious clichés as a coverup. If it is God's will for your life, you must maintain your faith and commit to doing the corresponding actions until breakthrough happens.

As believers called to walk by faith and not by sight, we can expect the same type of miracle outcome that Michelle had for her business when we understand the principles of God and know how to use them.

If you will do your part and continue to sow seeds, God will do His part. Even though you might not see or understand what's going on, there are things happening in the spirit realm. When you know and do your part and allow God to do His, miracles manifest.

Are you ready for your life to change for the better overnight? Make sure you listen to this inspiring episode, glean the principles, operate in them, and get ready to see your miracle manifest overnight! {eoa}
