

How You Can Participate in the National Day of Prayer Today

“Therefore, as you have received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in Him, having been firmly rooted and now being built up in Him and established in your faith, just as you were instructed, and overflowing with gratitude” (Col. 2:6-7, NASB).

Truly God has prepared us! The National Day of Prayer is here, and we pray that we will see God raise up and rally prayer gatherings throughout our nation, from community to community and from coast to coast and beyond. Millions of people in tens of thousands of local community events are prepared to come together to join their hearts and voices in prayer. Then at 8 p.m. ET, tens of millions from over 200 countries, connected by television, radio, social media and websites, are prepared to pray together with the National Day of Prayer Broadcast – exalting the Lord who has established us!

In the spirit of being prepared for what God is going to do, here are a few last-minute reminders that we wanted to share with you.

Post or Find a Local Event

If you haven't yet, please post your local event information on our National Day of Prayer Event Finder (click here). You can also search to find a local event near you.

Order Last-Minute Resources

If you still need prayer resources like our prayer guides for your local event, you can still order them, or download the digital files and print your own. Visit our web store at or

The broadcast will be hosted by our president, Kathy Branzell, and will feature Chris Tomlin, Matthew West, Robert Morris, Dr. Ed Young, Alan Jackson, Jack Graham, Joni Eareckson Tada, Ronnie Floyd, Skip Heitzig, Miles McPherson, Mark Batterson, Samuel Rodriguez, Lecrae, Anne Graham Lotz, Nick Hall, Beth Jones, Mike Kai, Bishop Kenneth Ulmer and many other of our well-known prayer partners.

You can find our current video promotions, graphics, press releases and audio spots at Please check back at this link throughout the next week, as we will continue to update it with additional promotions as they become available. To better prepare, let's all share and then share more with our friends and family through social media and via email.

As we prepare for gathering next week, let's also prepare our hearts for God to will and to work through us in the midst of it all.

Please pray with us ... Father, we come before You with a heart to exalt You, to glorify Your name and to stand in the gap for our nation. Lord, our leaders and our culture need You. As we gather next week to pray, pour out Your love, compassion and concern into our hearts. Cleanse us of all fear and unbelief, and instill us with faith to believe that You are God Almighty, and that Your Words are faithful and true – that “the effective, fervent prayer of a righteous man avails much”

(Jas. 5:16, NKJV). In Jesus' name, amen. {eo}
