

How You Can Turn the World Upside Down

Did you know that when you stick your neck out for God, He sticks His neck out for you too? Life with God is about loving passionately and risking boldly.

In today's episode of Turning the World Upside Down, Denise Goulet talks about what it requires to walk in kingdom authority amidst tough times, trauma, opposition and betrayal. She discusses her latest experience prophesying to President Trump three weeks before the 2020 election. She shares how the Lord spoke to her and through her especially in an extremely polarizing time for America and Her future.

Additionally, Goulet expounds on the apostle Paul's prophetic experience in the book of Acts. Paul says, "It is necessary for us to enter into the kingdom realm of God's kingdom because that's the only way we will endure our many trials and persecutions" (Acts 14:22b, TPT).

The kingdom realm is accessible now—just as it was for the apostle Paul and believers filled with the Holy Spirit. Paul underwent extreme persecution, but through his access to God's kingdom authority and the Father's love that abounded in his heart, He shifted atmospheres, cultures and brought heavenly alignment to a broken world.
