

Hundreds of Thousands Gather for Jesus in Exclusive 'Finger of God 2' Clip

In this new clip from the upcoming film, Finger of God 2, Director Will Hacker sets up an incredible adventure with Daniel Kolenda and his ministry, CfaN, in Tamale, Ghana, where hundreds of thousands of people will gather to hear the gospel preached.

You can sign up now for the online premiere of the film on Oct. 6 at f, which will be available for 24 hours.

Will Hacker is currently in the middle of a 35-city tour across the U.S with the film, which is playing to packed-out churches around the country. The powerful new movie from WP Films chronicles Will's journey from evangelical megachurch pastor to filming miracles in locations around the world and is a spiritual sequel to Darren Wilson's first film, Finger of God, which was released in 2008.

Ticket for the tour are free, but registration is required. For more info, visit f.
