

‘I’m Definitely Born Again’: Kanye West Opens Up About His Faith, Importance of Christians Speaking Up

In an interview published this week, entertainment mogul Kanye West opened up about his faith and why it’s important for Christians to speak out.

The 42-year-old rapper, who said he’s “definitely born again,” explained to GQ magazine’s Will Welch the difference between weighing in on an issue and being judgmental.

Everyone has sin, West told Welch, noting part of becoming a Christian is accepting the fact other believers will hold you accountable for your actions—something he said many critics don’t seem to understand. {eo}
