

If the Devil Attacks, Does That Mean You Have Secret Sin?

Just because the devil comes after you does not mean you have sinned, televangelist Jim Bakker says in a recent episode of his show.

Many times, the devil will attack those who are standing firm in their faith, not necessarily the other way around.

“The devil’s the wrong one,” Bakker says. “I wish we had Christian swear words so we could call the devil something.”

So how can we resist the devil and make him flee?

Watch the video to find out!

{eoa}