

If You Did This, Mario Murillo Says, 'It's Time to Cleanse Your Soul'

Sometimes it is necessary to call out evil, even when it is the evil of an entire Christian generation.

In Matthew 12:34-39, Jesus said, "Brood of vipers! How can you, being evil, speak good things? For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks. A good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth good things, and an evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth evil things. But I say to you that for every idle word men may speak, they will give account of it in the day of judgment. For by your words, you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned." Then, some of the scribes and Pharisees answered, saying, "Teacher, we want to see a sign from You." But He answered and said to them, "An evil and adulterous generation seeks after a sign, but no sign will be given to it except the sign of the prophet Jonah."

What part of voting for Joe Biden had anything to do with your Christian faith? What justified the utter betrayal of your faith? Why did you vote for evil? There is no excuse. You are naked in your choice and it is time to cleanse your soul.

Behold the face of evil. Joe Biden is not just a doddering old man; he is in the throes of depraved indifference. Sin and shame cling to his spirit like a film of acid rain. He oozes immorality.

You who voted to make him the leader of the free world, let me ask you this: Which of his qualities compelled you? Had he forged a heroic past? Was there ever anything about Joe that was not illegitimate, smarmy, or a layer of sludge of smoky backrooms? It is easy to see how those qualities extend your Christian conviction.

He did not really go into politics. He slithered onto the scene—spineless and reptilian. He can crawl through a barrel of pretzels and not touch a single one. He has certainly never touched decency or honesty. No wonder he warmed the cockles of your Christian vote.

Sometimes it is necessary to call out evil, even when it is the evil of an entire Christian generation.

In Matthew 12:34-39 (NKJV), Jesus said, “Brood of vipers! How can you, being evil, speak good things? For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks. A good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth good things, and an evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth evil things. But I say to you that for every idle word men may speak, they will give account of it in the day of judgment. For by your words, you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned.” Then, some of the scribes and Pharisees answered, saying, ‘Teacher, we want to see a sign from You.’ But He answered and said to them, ‘An evil and adulterous generation seeks after a sign, but no sign will be given to it except the sign of the prophet Jonah.’”

What part of voting for Joe Biden had anything to do with your Christian faith? What justified the utter betrayal of your faith? Why did you vote for evil? There is no excuse. You are naked in your choice, and it is time to cleanse your soul.

Behold the face of evil. Joe Biden is not just a doddering old man, he is in the throes of depraved indifference. Sin and shame cling to his spirit like a film of acid rain. He oozes immorality. He stares at his watch while caskets of heroes are being draped in flags in front of loved ones.

You who voted to make him the leader of the free world, let me ask you this: Which of his qualities compelled you? Had he forged a heroic past? Was there ever anything about Joe Biden that was not illegitimate, smarmy, or a layer of sludge of smoky backrooms? It is easy to see how those qualities extend your Christian conviction.

He did not really go into politics. He slithered onto the scene—spineless and reptilian. He can crawl through a barrel of pretzels and not touch a single one. He has certainly never touched decency or honesty. No wonder he warmed the cockles of your Christian vote.

Trump may have hurt your feelings, but Biden is killing your fellow Americans and your brothers in Christ. He brings in COVID from the southern border and leaves Americans in the hands of the Taliban in the East. He seems bored and must check his watch several times while waiting for the plane returning from Afghanistan, carrying the bodies of the soldiers killed by his indifference. He is gleefully unmoved by the slightest pang of conscience when confronted by the grieving mother of one of those soldiers.

Biden carries his own low temperature with him. No fire of generosity ever sparked in him. He is what Tolstoy said of Napoleon: “He lost the power to think a decent thought.” Biden can’t say anything kind, compassionate or wise. He can only spill the bile of his soul. I see the attraction to your Christian values.

Satan said to Biden, “Close the airport before you get the Americans out. Better to keep your promise to the Taliban than to the people you serve.” He makes parents childless. He makes widows and orphans. He has shamed the U.S. military in the sight of the entire world.

He made our men and women in uniform leave behind those who did not deserve to die. The most deeply held value of the America military is, “No man left behind.” He broke their hearts. But somehow, he convinced you he was the right man to vote for.

You urban pastors who were receiving money from the Democrat Party to get out the vote, must live with your infamy. You prostituted yourselves and, worse yet, you prostituted your pulpit. You aided evil. You helped put unprecedented vileness in the People's House.

Take a long look in the mirror and see if you are beholding a Christian man—let alone a preacher.

Yes, I am going on record that everyone who falls under this heading has done evil, and God will not hold you guiltless. When you voted for Biden, you made a statement. You said something—something you must face. Jesus said, “But I say to you that for every idle word men may speak, they will give account of it in the Day of Judgment. For by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned” (Matt. 12:36-37).

The iniquity of your vote still echoes in your soul. You wear a label. You bear a stain. You carry the stigma of a perverted generation who are shaking their fists at God.

A blog should end in hope. I should try to comfort you. Maybe your traitorous vote didn't actually put him in. But it is still a traitorous vote. But such comfort belongs to other kinds of people, making other kinds of choices. To proffer you hope in your sin, would bring me into agreement with it.

But there is hope in repentance! You can renounce the horror of your error. You can be cleansed, but this is no light cleansing. There is far more involved in getting rid of this wicked choice than you realize. Do not wait and do not deny your crime. To the honestly repentant, there remains this promise:

“If we [freely] admit that we have sinned and confess our sins, He is faithful and just (true to His own nature and promises) and will forgive our sins [dismiss our lawlessness] and [continuously] cleanse us from all unrighteousness

[everything not in conformity to His will in purpose, thought, and action]" (1 John 1:9, AMP).

It is time to cleanse your soul. {eo}

For the original article, visit .

Mario Murillo rose from poverty in the Mission District of San Francisco. After being revolutionized by Christ, he felt a call to the University of California at Berkeley. His international ministry was launched after a four-day conference in San Jose California extended for six months with a total attendance of nearly 250,000 people. Since then Mario's voice has been heard by millions around the world, bringing a message that zeroes in on the hurts of society. He presents Christ clearly, intelligently and openly declares the power of Jesus to totally transform a life. His simple declaration: Come and see. Christ has the power to end addiction, racism, violence and disease.

Read articles like this one and other Spirit-led content in our new platform, CHARISMA PLUS.