

In Wake of Trump Shooting, Let's All Tone Things Down

As we all sit here stunned, watching the coverage of the attempted assassination of former President Trump, it really is a time for reflection. Are we contributing to this atmosphere of hatred and violence? What kind of emotions do we elicit with the words we speak and the memes we post? What are we fomenting? To what end?

With that in mind, I posted the following on X on Saturday evening:

I pray it is not too late.

At this moment, as I write, it is all so fresh, The sights and sounds of the moment are more than surreal. Yet this really happened—all of it.
