

Is God a Zionist?

As anti-Semitism continues to rise in America and as Israel-bashing becomes more and more common on our campuses, it would be good to ask the question: “Is God a Zionist?”

But before we can answer that question, we first need to define the term Zionist.

Simply stated, a Zionist is someone who believes that the Jewish people should have a homeland in what is now Israel. That’s it.

Based on that definition, we can say that, yes, for sure God is a Zionist.
