

Is It Conspiracy Theory If It's True?

Last month I attended the Patriots Arise conference in Gettysburg, Pennsylvania. The guest speakers could be described for the most part as “conspiracy theorists” by the mainstream media. Nonetheless, I was greatly impressed by the length and breadth of the material covered during this conference. Notably, I was impressed by Rodney Howard-Browne and Paul Williams’ book, Killing the Planet: How a Financial Cartel Doomed Mankind. This book is not for the faint of heart. If you have an open mind, the facts presented by Williams are incontrovertible. The conference included guest speakers such as Williams, Scott McKay, Dr. Laura Sanger, Madyson Marquette, Allen and Francine Fosdick, Bishop Gaither and more. I will be reaching out to several of these guest speakers to join me in podcast interviews for The Father’s Heart on Charisma Podcast Network. A summary of the material presented at the conference could best be described as an expose of facts that we have been duped into believing by the people controlling the levers of power and information in our nation for the last 100 years or so.

I came away from the conference with the shocking realization that nothing I had been taught about in school in respect to history was true. In the bloodthirsty quest for power, people driven by fear sought to control the world. Satan was more than willing to oblige mankind’s lust for power; remember Satan’s temptation of Christ: “All these things I will give You if You will fall down and worship me” (Matt. 4:9). It is obvious that there were many who took Satan up on his offer. They have been willing through secret societies of Freemasons and the Illuminati to engage in satanic ritual abuse to offer child sacrifices to Satan in exchange for power. Most people find that hard to believe, but just read the Old Testament.

These activities were happening in the promised land before and after the children of Abraham occupied the land of Israel, and they are happening today in secret.

Let me present several questions for you: Why was Lincoln shot? Why was the Civil War fought? Who was behind the sinking of the Titanic and why? Why was World Wars I and II started? Who killed JFK and why? What is the truth behind the oil business, the Federal Reserve and the world's financial system? Who is behind the American Medical Association and the American Bar Association? And why were they formed? Who truly controls the media? How and why is the CIA involved in the world and in the U.S.?

You will be shocked to realize the bloodline families who follow the Luciferian doctrine are behind all the above organizations and dozens more. Why? Satan wants to control the human race in every way possible. God our Father wants us to be free. It's good versus evil, God versus Satan. It's the timeless battle that is now coming to conclusion very soon, even prospectively in our lifetime. It's not a conspiracy if it's true.
