

Is Trump About to Fulfill Prophecy About China's Shocking Secret?

Intercessors around the world are contacting me about the China information bombshell prophecy sharing what God is showing them, along with news articles they discern are the first fruits of their labors. Prayer warriors from Asia to the Europe, throughout the United States and beyond are praying for exposure.

Are we beginning to see the rumbling of exposure?

On Thursday, President Donald Trump declared he's seen evidence coronavirus originated in a Chinese lab, contradicting a report from U.S. intelligence agencies.

"Have you seen anything at this point that gives you a high degree of confidence that the Wuhan Institute of Virology was the origin of this virus?" a reporter asked Trump at the White House on Thursday.

"Yes, I have. Yes, I have," Trump said. "And I think the World Health Organization should be ashamed of themselves because they're like the public relations agency for China."

When asked if he could clarify, Trump said, "'I can't tell you that. I'm not allowed to tell you that."

Trump also said, "Whether they [China] made a mistake, or whether it started off as a mistake and then they made another one, or did somebody do something on purpose? I don't understand how traffic, how people weren't allowed into the rest of China, but they were allowed into the rest of the world. That's a bad, that's a hard question for them to answer."

Is Trump about to fulfill the prophecy about China's shocking secret? That remains to be seen, but it seems the wrecking ball called Trump is not willing to stop short of exposing China on the coronavirus front—and God only knows what more is hidden behind that veil.
