

Jehovah Jireh: The Great Provider

One of the names of God is Jehovah Jireh, which means “the Lord our Provider” or “the Lord will provide.” It’s so wonderful to know that God is the source of everything we need, and He cares about everything we care about. There’s no need so small that He doesn’t know about it, and nothing too big for Him to provide for us.

He is omniscient (all knowing), omnipresent (everywhere, all the time) and omnipotent (all powerful) (Jer. 42:11, AMP).

The Bible says He’s:

- Our shelter, refuge and hiding place (Ps. 91).
- The one who comforts us (2 Cor. 1:3).
- Our healer (Ps. 103:3).
- The source of wisdom (James 1:5).
- And everything else we need!

The Lord is your provider. He loves you, and He has a good plan for your life. He wants to bless you so you can fulfill every aspect of His plan and purpose—so you can really enjoy your life. And in His Word, He tells us who He is and how He gives us access to everything we need through Christ.

The problem is, sometimes we miss out on what God wants to do in our lives because we go to people, expecting them to give us what we need instead of God. God will surely work through the people He puts in our lives to help us, but we must go to Him first and let Him determine the best way to meet our needs.
