

Jim Bakker: God Spoke to Me About These Revelation Days

These are the Revelation days, Jim Bakker says.

The comment was preceded by Bakker evaluating recent headlines, praising President Donald Trump's decision to pull out of the Paris Accord and mourning Kathy Griffin's horrific photograph of holding Trump's bloody head.

"You were upset. You were bothered that people kept pushing the envelope," Revelation in the News co-host Mondo de la Vega says of Bakker's reaction to the photo.

But it all makes sense, Bakker says, because of what God told him in prison many years ago.

"God began to speak to me and what was coming, and here we are in that very day. We are now in the Revelation days."

Watch the video to see more.

{eoa}