

Jim Bakker: I Believe God's Judgment Is About to Fall

Jim Bakker is shouting his warnings from the rooftops—and the media mountains.

"I was going to preach something altogether different until I realized today is Elul 1. Thirty days to go—could it happen? Will it happen?" he asked. "I don't know. All I know is (there have) been a lot of warnings."

It's apparent Bakker believes with all his heart we are in the beginning of the last days. His prophetic senses tell him we are beginning a sea change that is a different world than we've ever lived in.

"I believe God's judgment is about to fall on the United States of America and will go around the world," he said. "I'm not anti-people, I'm not anti-anybody, I'm not anti-red, yellow, black or white. I'm not anti-gay, I'm not anti-this or anti-that. But I am pro-God, and we cannot change God's Word and creation ... (There are) going to be both judgment and revival."
