

Jim Bakker: This Dream Will Shock America to the Core

Jim Bakker says God's been speaking to him quite a bit in dreams.

But not the feel-good, everything will be OK dreams. Actually, it's quite the opposite, and Bakker says the dreams are a warning for the church.

"People really want fun church. And you know, I don't really find much in the Bible where church is supposed to be fun. You're supposed to get under conviction once in a while. You're supposed to hear the Word of the Lord. You're supposed to hear truth that's going to set you free from the days to come," Bakker says.

And if we don't repent, well, Bakker shudders to think of what's to come.

Watch the video to see more.