

Jim Bob Duggar: 'We Love Everybody, but ...'

Jim Bob Duggar says he doesn't expect TLC to drop 19 Kids and Counting anytime soon.

Because of the Duggar family's uncompromising stand on marriage and abstinence, the homosexual lobby launched a rant-filled petition asking TLC to cancel its top-rated show.

During the annual Booster Banquet at Hannibal-LaGrange University in November, the family patriarch said "They won't succeed."

"Our show is the number one show on TLC. We love everybody. It's a small group creating this fuss. All it has done is give us more exposure. We've gained 50,000 Facebook fans last week. God is expanding our borders through the national media."

The Duggar Family has shared their strong Christian faith with millions of families across America for years. They are unashamedly pro-life and Christ-centered.

"We love everybody, but we don't always agree with them," Jim Bob said. He added that he is not concerned about the fledgling petition campaign.

In response, you and your AFA have collected over 165,000 signatures on our own petition to TLC, encouraging them to continue airing 19 Kids and Counting as wholesome family programming on television.

We'll be delivering them just after Christmas. So, if you haven't signed our petition, there's still time! Help us reach our goal of 200,000 by signing the petition today!
