

Joe Biden Just Publicly Asked for the Lord to Forgive Him

Former Vice President Joe Biden cheekily asked God for forgiveness over the weekend for failing to speak out against President Donald Trump sooner.

While delivering an address in Washington, D.C., during the left-leaning Human Rights Campaign's annual gala, Biden explained he and former President Barack Obama "agreed we would be quiet for the first year to let the new administration get up and running."

As the audience began to grumble and giggle, the former vice president quipped, "God forgive me." {eoa}
