

Joe Rogan and Dr. Phil Tackle the Lies of Child Transgenderism

Two unlikely people are taking down the progressive lies fed to children about transgenderism.

In a recent episode of “The Joe Rogan Experience” podcast, Rogan and Dr. Phil discussed some of the issues plaguing our nation today from the repercussions of COVID-19 on society and internet security to the LGBTQ agenda being imposed on children.

“It’s interesting that they choose words like ‘gender affirming care,’” Dr. Phil McGraw says. “Really, what they’re talking about is hormonal therapy or sex reassignment surgery on children.

McGraw says that when he’s questioned the long-term affects of gender transitioning on children, it immediately gets him struck down as transphobic.

“I thought that the deal was first ‘do no harm,’” McGraw says. “All of the European countries, you know Sweden and Norway, they’ve all stopped doing it because they say we cannot say in good conscious that this does no harm.”

What’s also scary about the explosion of the transgender agenda being pushed on children is that teachers are being utilized to step into an area of psychology that most are not fully trained to do so.

"The teachers are not trained in either psychology or medicine. They're not any more trained to deal with that than they are to take out the kids' spleen in the home room," McGraw says.

Rogan also points out the question that many of us have wondered about this agenda: What is driving it?

"What do you think is behind it though?" Rogan asks. "Especially the push toward children, affirming children."

From a biblical perspective, it would appear as though there is a real, spiritual war happening right now. John 10:10 reminds us that "The thief does not come, except to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life, and that they may have it more abundantly."

The thief is desiring right now to steal away today's youth from experiencing true life. He desires to mutilate and twist them into something they are not, but Jesus came to give them a life of fullness and abundance. Pray for our children and teens that they may not be swept up into the vices of this world.
