"Candace Owens is an enemy now of Zionism," says Cahn. "And you'll hear the word 'Zionism' or 'Zionist' now used by Anti-semites."

Previously, Owens made the statement that Zionism has "brought us nothing but grief in America."

"Can you name one positive thing that Zionists have contributed to America?" Owens asked.

To help show the true and correct meaning of Zionism, Cahn broke down the falsities in Owens' claim.

"What exactly is the word Zionism? What does it mean? It comes from the Bible," Cahn says. "The biblical word simply means the land of Israel. And Zionism simply means the belief that the Jewish people have the right to return to their ancient homeland given to them by God and have a nation there.”

Cahn also makes another clear and pertinent point: Zionism is not about us. It’s about the will of God.

“It’s not about what Israel has brought you. It’s about God’s will, the will of God, the Word of God. God has brought Israel back into the world, and you want to stand with the enemy?”

Cahn’s challenge cuts to the heart of the matter: siding against Israel is ultimately siding against God’s prophetic purposes. In a time when misinformation and hostility toward the Jewish people are on the rise, Cahn urges believers to stand boldly with God’s Word, His covenant and His chosen nation, refusing to be swayed by rhetoric that aligns with the enemy’s agenda.
