As the story has built up toward this pivotal betrayal, "The Chosen" has gone viral for releasing a sneak peek of a powerful scene between Judas and Jesus—their final conversation before Judas walks away.

"That was the scene I was most looking forward to film because in my eyes, I was like, 'Oh this is the last time they talk,'" says Dimyan. "This is the real last time they get to talk like that [where] Jesus even sees Judas as a friend."
