

Justin Bieber Breaks Into Worship at Buckingham Palace

Pop megastar Justin Bieber is no stranger to sharing his faith. In recent years, he has become increasingly bold, taking every opportunity to both post about his relationship with God on social media, as well as perform worship songs during his stadium-packed shows.

But in the most recent clip circulating of the “Purpose” singer, Bieber can be seen serenading model Hailey Baldwin. What is extraordinary, however, is that Justin is actually singing a popular worship song, “Good Good Father,” by Housefires.

Sitting outside Buckingham Palace in central London, the singer was captured strumming away on his acoustic guitar singing the line “You are perfect in all of your ways.”
