Kanye West is certainly not one to waste time.

Just weeks after the release of his gospel album Jesus Is King, the megastar rapper has announced he will release a second part to the record, Jesus Is King Part II.

Issuing the news via Twitter, West revealed that the second installment would feature renowned rapper and producer Dr. Dre. While the two have worked with several of the same artists over the years, this will be the first time they have teamed up together for a project.
