

Kanye West Takes James Corden to Church: 'God's Always Had a Plan for Me'

Kanye West has appeared on the Late Late Show With James Corden, featuring in a special segment called "Airpool Karaoke." Hanging out with Corden on a massive jetliner, West talked about his faith in Jesus Christ, the "Sunday Service" events and even performed some tracks from his new gospel record, "Jesus is King."

Speaking openly about his struggles with his mental health, West told Corden that the idea for "Sunday Service" came to him during a stay at the hospital.

"When I went to the hospital a few years ago, I wrote in the hospital 'start a church in Calabasas,'" West said of his plans to plant a congregation in California. "It's something I had a feeling that I needed to do, that God put on my heart. Now, He keeps on taking us to new levels."

Click here to read the rest of this story from our content partners at Faithwire.

The news of the day doesn't have to leave you feeling hopeless and angry. Sign up for the Faithwire Newsletter for encouraging stories delivered right to your inbox.