

Larry Tomczak's Week in Review: 12 Areas Where Deception and Hypocrisy Are Harming America Now

Jesus directed us to be discerning. He warned us four times in Matthew 24 that the No. 1 signpost before His return would be deception!

Charles Spurgeon said, "Discernment is not just knowing the difference between right and wrong but between right and almost right."

Are you developing your power of discernment in these perilous times to safeguard yourself, your family, your church and those you serve?

Take 10 minutes to gain insight and protect those you love with this important video commentary.

Read articles like this one and other Spirit-led content in our new platform, CHARISMA PLUS.