

Larry Tomczak's Week in Review: 3 Essentials Trump Needs in This Time of Transition

Conservative flamethrower Ann Coulter appeared recently as a guest on the Clay Travis and Buck Sexton show, blasting Donald Trump! The once ardent supporter of the president who wrote "In Trump We Trust" sounds like Israel who turned on Moses once they crossed the Red Sea.

After racking up achievements in his four years like few presidents in U.S. history, he lost suspiciously to Biden and has continued being the target of ongoing acrimonious accusations and attacks.

In this wonderful season of gift-giving and remembering those who have served us well, I submit for your consideration three gifts that Donald Trump should receive at this pivotal time in his life and career.

Jesus said, "It's more blessed to give than receive" (Acts 20:35) so take 10 to invest in this video to be inspired and challenged!
