

Larry Tomczak's Week in Review: 5 Gifts from God as Darkness Increases

It is becoming glaringly apparent that darkness is increasing with corruption, chaos and confusion abounding. At the same time, God is demonstrating his care for us as his people by giving us gifts to prepare us for what's unfolding.

Are you aware of them? Will you take advantage of them for yourself, family church and loved ones?

For over 100 years, the Coast Guard motto has been "Semper Paratus" which means always prepared. With what's goin' down and comin' our way it's time to lay hold of God's provision for perilous times.

"The prudent man sees danger and hides himself; the fool goes on, and suffers for it" (Prov. 22:3). {eoa}
