

Larry Tomczak's Week in Review: Defunding and Demonizing Police Is Deceptive Narrative

Among today's megamerger of radical leftists; cowering, corporate executives; and corrupt political activists calling for the toppling of America's law enforcement, God is blowing an urgent trumpet for believers to stand strong and represent righteousness.

Ben and Jerry, commentators on the tube and marxist politicians, continue pointing the finger at police using the race card and polarizing the people. At the same time there are stunning spikes in murder and violence in our cities.

We must be informed influencers to preserve traditional America established upon God's design for law and order and respect for those in authority.

Watch this compelling and clear presentation of the facts and God's game plan to restore sanity before it's too late.
