

Larry Tomczak's Week in Review: Don't Rock the Boat? How About Sink It!

When a high school valedictorian stood up to her principal trying to cancel her testimony, we were emboldened! The time has come to stop being wimps and witness to the one who's called us to be bold as a lion in today's cancel culture.

Biden's pushing an irresponsible $6 trillion socialist budget. Black Lives Matter's foundation is being exposed. Progressives push Israel out and promote Palestinian terrorism.

Courageous Christians must rise to the occasion as informed influencers. "All that's required for the triumph of evil is for good men to say nothing." Not us, anymore!
