

Larry Tomczak's Week in Review: From Scripture, Can You Name 25 Things That Parents Owe Children?

Walt Disney was a baptized Christian who was devoted to upholding family friendly values. But what is happening with today's version of the company, where radical activists have taken it over to fill their own pockets?

Parents are increasingly alarmed at the takeover of not only the entertainment industry by so-called progressives bent on destroying the nuclear family, but also with school boards and in classrooms across America.

The Bible tells us three times in Ephesians 6 that in the "evil day," we are to stand ... stand ... stand! So, take 10 and rise up as you learn and live what God says regarding parents and what we owe our children to help them stand strong in the evil day. {eoa}
