

Larry Tomczak's Week in Review: In Stressful Times, Here's the Most Popular Scripture to Draw Upon

We are living in a transformational time. There is a sense of apocalyptic fear in Americans.

There is the resurgence of COVID, escalating crime, tense race relations, rising political corruption, border chaos, Middle East turmoil, economic insanity, LGBTQ and BLM propaganda in schools and astonishing loss of trust in the media.

We need to discover how Jesus as our good Shepherd cares, guides, protects and provides for us as we trust and obey.

God is giving us a gracious invitation to give us hope. Take 10 minutes and be inspired and secure in this tumultuous time.
