

Larry Tomczak's Week in Review: Is America Sowing the Wind and Reaping the Whirlwind?

"For they sow the wind, and they will reap the whirlwind" (Hos. 8:7).

God spoke these words over Israel when they began compromising and turning away from Him. Unprecedented peace and prosperity not known since the time of Solomon slowly but surely disintegrated and the people found themselves in turbulent times, just like us today.

Are you aware of the gravity of the situation in our society? Do you have a sense of urgency to be a difference maker in seeing things turn back to God?

Franklin Graham, son of the late Billy Graham, said it best: "Without a Great Awakening, America is doomed."

Take 10 to invest in becoming an informed influencer and impact player to hasten divine intervention today! {eoa}

Read articles like this one and other Spirit-led content in our new platform, CHARISMA PLUS.