

Larry Tomczak's Week in Review: Pioneer Boldly Moves Forward with Heartbeat Bill

While the world honors various women with awards, Christians continue to pay tribute to the pioneer of the "Heartbeat Bill," Janet Porter.

This indefatigable woman of God has persevered and plowed the ground that has saved scores of babies in the womb.

Recently, the governor of Utah signed into law a bill that outlaws abortion clinics in that state. Since the overturning of Roe v. Wade, political leaders have stepped forward to stand for the sanctity of life. And, we've only just begun.

Take 10 and invest your time, listening to this amazing personal interview for 10 minutes with this woman who is a champion in our generation.{eoa}
