

Larry Tomczak's Week in Review: Swap Troubled Athlete for Terrorist Arms Dealer?

The Bible tells us, "A false balance is an abomination to the Lord" ().

So, should we cave to Russia and give them one of the world's most dangerous terrorists/mass murderers—"The Merchant of Death"—for a basketball player known for her anti-American rants and lesbian lifestyle?

This is not like past prisoner exchanges of a spy for a spy or a POW for a POW but rather an avowed killer/arms supplier. Doing so encourages our enemies to take hostages to manipulate America.

"You do something, you have to pay the price for it!"—Brittney Griner, 2015 ESPN.

Take 10 and watch this informative video and then pray for our leaders and Ms. Griner. {eoa}