

Larry Tomczak's Week in Review: Take This Quiz Revealing FBI Disturbing Developments

What are we to make of recent polling revealing that the majority of Americans, 70%, don't trust the FBI, demand reforms and discern it didn't follow its own high standards in dealing with Donald Trump?

The most powerful law enforcement agency on the planet that exposed and eliminated most of the Mafia, Ku Klux Klan and communist infiltrators has shockingly lost the respect of most Americans.

It's not the 35,000 special agents who deserve our support and prayers, but at the top where the trouble is. The recent congressional hearings brought issues to the surface and we must not be apathetic because this iconic institution since 1908 has carried out the mission of protecting the American people in an unbiased and non-political manner, while upholding the Constitution of the United States.
