

Larry Tomczak's Week in Review: 'The Buck Stops Here!' Does Biden Deserve Our Respect?

Democratic President Harry Truman had a sign on his desk that communicated to everyone that he was in charge and would take action to keep America strong, safe and prosperous. The sign read, "The Buck Stops Here."

Truman, as most know, made the weighty decision to drop two atomic bombs on Japan. Historians and Americans afford him tremendous respect for the way he discharged his duties as Commander-in-Chief.

Today with Joe Biden in the Oval Office as a pawn of radical leftists (Marxists, socialists and globalists), does he automatically deserve our respect? Can we respect the office, yet not the man?

Watch this video to learn the answer and be an informed influencer in today's turbulent times. {eoa}