

Larry Tomczak's Week in Review: The Controversial Video That Cost Me My Job

During gay pride month, conservatives packed Opryland to hear President Trump, Newt Gingrich, Mike Pompeo, Ralph Reed and Dr. Robert Jeffress. The central theme: pastors and people, be courageous in cultural war—cowards go first to the lake of fire (Rev. 21:8)!

Speaking with Dr. Jeffress, who challenged us to “count the cost,” I shared my story of being cut from my church because I dared stand up to equip God’s people contrary to the LGBTQ agenda on marriage and morality.

The leader told me it was a “deal breaker ... we don’t wanna go there ... we do not want death threats!”

Watch the video that caused the leader to tell Larry, “Just go and don’t come back.”
