

Larry Tomczak's Week in Review: Vaccinated? Masked? Perplexed? How to Remain at Rest

Our society is swirling in conflicting advice and reports on COVID-19, mandates for vaccines, a more contagious delta variant and legitimate objections to reinstituting masks and getting vaccinated! Fear is rising, and tempers are flaring in the face of this tsunami of controversy and confusion.

For His obedient children, God gives us three incredibly potent prayers to protect us and those whom we love. The profound significance and simple elegance of these power-packed prayers have been a blessing throughout the centuries, and they're available for your protection and peace of mind in this turbulent time.

Take 10 minutes to learn them, so you and your loved ones can remain at rest and not perplexed as you walk in faith and grow in your practice of prayer.

Read articles like this one and other Spirit-led content in our new platform, CHARISMA PLUS.