

Larry Tomczak's Week in Review: 21 Progressive Positions of California Kamala

Living in the Music City USA area, I hear lots of classic summer anthems, one of which is "California Girls" by The Beach Boys. Katy Perry and Snoop Dogg did a number with the same title (although they spelled it differently) that became song of the year. Both blockbuster hits focused on features and qualities that supposedly informed us about why West Coast girls were best.

When it comes to the critical presidential election rapidly approaching and a newly announced candidate, Vice President Kamala Harris, we need to be informed on who she is, what she represents and what she's done so we can make a fact-based choice for the future of our nation and our families.
