

Larry Tomczak's Week in Review: 6 Areas Where America's Reaping What We're Sowing

"The life you lead determines the legacy you leave." This maxim illustrates the biblical principle of sowing and reaping. What's true for individuals is also true for nations.

The Bible teaches, "Whoever sows to please their flesh, from the flesh will reap destruction" (Gal.6:8, NIV). The United States of America is in decline, not just culturally but politically and in numerous other areas because we've compromised biblical commands. We're now realizing we've sown the wind and are reaping the whirlwind (see Hos. 8:7).

Take 10 to survey six areas reaping havoc on our society. Yet it's not too late to "turn from our wicked ways" (see 2 Chron. 7:14) and believe God for a third Great Awakening before it's too late. The 2024 election gives us a chance to move forward while we pray, fervently and proclaim unwaveringly the gospel and a biblical worldview. Watch!
