

Larry Tomczak's Week in Review: Challenging Questions to 'Salt' Election 2024

Jesus told us that we are the "salt of the earth," but if we lose our saltiness we are no good except to be "thrown out and trampled underfoot by men" (Matt. 5:13b, NKJV).

Salt prevents decay, and that is part of our role as Christians in our world. Salt also makes people thirsty, and so we are to lead our lives daily in a way to draw people to Jesus, making them thirsty and desirous of following Him.

Each of us has the opportunity to engage people in our relational sphere and trust Him for divine appointments to influence others for righteousness.
