

Larry Tomczak's Week In Review, Election Edition: Healing From the Guilt of 'Pro-Choice'

The progressive Left does more than advocate aborting the life of unborn babies, aggressively promoting it, celebrating it and presenting it as something almost noble. The unborn baby with a real right to life is ignored in the name of so-called "reproductive rights" and upholding "a woman's right to her own body."

But behind the scenes are silent screams of not only the slaughtered innocent, but also women (and men) with trauma and toxic guilt. Nationally known evangelist and author Francis Anfusio shares one of the most remarkable accounts from his own life to help us understand what's real and paralyzing people after their erroneous choice—sometimes even decades ago.

Listen to the heart-cry of God coming through one of His choice servants to help us bring healing to the hurting in this critical area. Watch.
