

Larry Tomczak's Week in Review, Election Edition: Will Catholics Vote for Sanctity of Life?

The Catholic Church dogma, based on Scripture, is unwavering that human life is sacred, beginning at conception, and abortion is murder. Yet in the last presidential election, why did 50% of Catholics support the pro-abortion candidate? What about this year?

The pope recently reiterated that abortion is murdering an unborn child in the womb and a grave mortal sin. Yet today, only about 25% of Roman Catholics attend Mass weekly.

How many understand the biblical worldview on the sanctity of life and the sanctity of one man/one woman marriage? In addition, there are many moral issues where Catholics need to align with biblical teaching.

My good friend Dr. Michael Shreve, who leads a ministry with special emphasis on helping Catholics understand what the Bible teaches on important issues, presents a compelling and challenging video to awaken Catholics in this critical hour.
