

Larry Tomczak's Week in Review: Election Tipping Point and God's Guidebook With Dr. Michael Brown

After months and months of campaigning and ads on TV, we've reached the pivotal moment and tipping point for our nation. We know we should look to the Bible to be informed influencers and find the answers to all the hot-button issues of the present. But is the Bible still relevant, and is the sufficiency of Scripture really enough in this modern day?
