

Larry Tomczak's Week in Review: The Capital Controversy: What Really Happened?

Recently, President Joe Biden traveled to Valley Forge to portray himself like George Washington in the American Revolution. On national TV, he commemorated the controversial Jan. 6 event by promising to save America from the MAGA extremists and their fascist leader. He casts himself as the savior, defending democracy from dictatorship while celebrating his progressive policies and Bidenomics, which he says are causing America to prosper again.
