

Lauren Daigle Takes No. 1 Spot on Adult Contemporary Radio Chart

Lauren Daigle hit the No. 1 spot on a secular music chart with her hit song “You Say.” Her song took the coveted spot on Billboard’s Adult Contemporary radio airplay chart from Maroon 5, ending the 33-week reign of “Girls Like You.”

Daigle’s music has topped Christian charts for some time, but her high ranking on a secular chart is a significant indicator of her popularity beyond Christian-music listeners. It’s the first song to make such a crossover.

“You Say” stayed at the top of the Christian Airplay chart for 17 weeks since September. And its corresponding album, Look Up Child, still dominates Top Christian Albums.

Click here to watch Daigle’s live performance of “You Say” at the Dove Awards.