

Leading End-Times Expert: The Bible Warned Us About Today

Those from two or more generations ago likely never thought they would see the legalization, permissiveness and outright rationalization of lawlessness in our society.

But thus—from the celebrations of the “right” to abortions up until the birth moment to unholy marriage, vast gender confusion, drag queen story hours at public libraries across the U.S. and much more—this is where the culture has arrived.

The concept of “legalizing lawlessness” and how it will tie to the Antichrist and the future of earth is a central theme of author and minister Mark Biltz’s newest and soon-to-be-released book, Decoding the Antichrist and the End Times: What the Bible Says and What the Future Holds.

For the book, Biltz takes an in-depth look at some of the deepest questions surrounding the Antichrist, points to the past and gives a glimpse into what may be to come.

“Solomon ruled through lawlessness,” Biltz said. “He was the first to sacrifice his own child. Atrocities like these are nothing new but have certainly been heightened in modern history. The Bible warned us of days like these, when people would call evil ‘good’ and good ‘evil.’ This is exactly what is happening today. We live in a time of total lawlessness, and we are barraged by it daily. Our society holds steadfast to the idea that everyone can have his or her own truth and there is no universal truth.

“But here is an absolute truth—the Bible states that God declared the end from the beginning,” Biltz added. “To know what the future holds, we need to know more than what’s happened in the past and what is unfolding this very moment. If you want to know about the end times, you have to start with Genesis—it's all encoded there!"

Decoding the Antichrist and the End Times asks and seeks to answer the following questions:

- What does the Bible say about the Antichrist's tactics and his motivation?
- Will he be a Muslim, a Jew or a professed Christian—or something else?
- Will the Antichrist work through modern technology and artificial intelligence to seize control?

Mark Biltz is founder of El Shaddai Ministries and a well-known and popular commentator on the feasts of the Lord. In fact, he has produced a series of DVDs on the feasts that have gone around the world. Biltz is also the author of Blood Moons and God's Day Timer. His research and theories have led to guest appearances on radio, television and magazine covers nationwide.

Decoding the Antichrist and the End Times, set for release March 5, is published by Charisma House, which has published books that challenge, encourage, teach and equip Christians, including 14 New York Times' best-sellers.
